STATEMENT OF PROBABLE CAUSE

On September 28, 2018, at approximately 9:26 a.m., the Minnesota Department of Natural Resources received a report of an individual hunting on open water on Rice Lake in Lino Lakes, Anoka County. After learning of the report, Conservation Lieutenant Tony Salzer, Conservation Officer Luke Gutzwiller, and Conservation Officer Tyler Ramaker of the Minnesota Department of Natural Resources responded to the northwest shore of Rice Lake at approximately 11:00 a.m. A trumpeter swan was observed swimming out from a point on the east end of Rice Lake into the open water of the lake. Following behind the trumpeter swan was an individual in a blue kayak with a red paddle. The individual paddling the kayak, subsequently identified as Conner Benjamin Walsh, D.O.B. 08/01/1994, the defendant herein, was seen raising a long gun to his right shoulder. While on open water, the defendant fired the long gun at the trumpeter swan. The swan dropped over in the water. The defendant was observed grabbing the swan and dragging the bird alongside the kayak. Trumpeter swans are federally protected birds and cannot be taken without authorization under the Minnesota game and fish laws.

Conservation officers intercepted the defendant on the lake in his kayak as his was paddling toward the south end of lake. Draped across the bow of the kayak were two trumpeter swans. The defendant was not wearing a life jacket. The officers removed from the kayak a Winchester Model 1300 12-gauge shotgun. When asked for his hunting license, the defendant stated that he had left his hunting license in his car.

Conservation officers met the defendant as he came off the lake. The defendant produced for the conservation officers a hunting license for 2016. The defendant explained that he had purchased a current hunting license a couple of days prior at Home Depot or Fleet Farm. A search of the Department of Natural Resources Electronic Licensing System failed to find a small game license issued to the defendant for 2018 or 2017. The search also determined that the defendant had not purchased the required waterfowl stamps to hunt waterfowl for 2018 or 2017. The defendant explained that he had attempted to purchase a hunting license and stamps at Fleet Farm, but he was denied because his driver's license was expired.

The defendant told the conservation officers that he started hunting at approximately 6:45 a.m. on September 28, 2018. The defendant stated that he had shot a duck that he did not immediately retrieve. The defendant stated that he left the duck in the water for about 10 minutes and he could not find it when he went to retrieve it. The defendant stated he saw the two trumpeter swans that he thought were snow geese. The defendant stated that he shot both trumpeter swans, killing them.
